

Dues and contributions from members & friends support the Peace and Justice Resource Center and related activities. Your financial support and participation are important to OCPJ's efforts to further peace & justice through education & action. You can help. With your membership, please consider making an extra donation or becoming a Sustaining or Patron member. Mary Duerksen, membership chair

Choose a membership: $40 Household $25 Individual $5 Student/Limited Income
 $75 Sustaining $100 Patron $_____ Name your own

Please consider also donating to the Bloom Peace Education Fund, named in honor of dedicated peace and justice advocates Mel and Rosie Bloom. The fund supports educational peace and justice projects taking place in, or originating in, the Oxford area. Dues and contributions may be included in the same check.

Contribution to the Bloom Peace Education Fund $_____

Your involvement increases OCPJ's effectiveness:

- Take part in action/education efforts – circle issue(s) that interest you the most:
Economic Justice; Civil Liberties; Just Peace; Environmental Sustainability; Other _____
- Volunteer in the Peace Center <513-523-6555>
- Be part of the OCPJ listserv (post and/or read comments and items of interest)
- Join the OCPJ Facebook page
- Help with short term projects (Bread not Bombs dinner, yard sale, computer work, newsletter, other)
- Attend Board meetings (open to all, first Saturday morning of month, at Peace Center)
- Provide moral and financial support

NAME(s) _____ DATE _____
(if family membership, list all)

ADDRESS _____ PHONE _____

E-MAIL(s) _____
(list several if helpful in reaching all members of household – communication is increasingly online)

COMMENT _____

Please print this form & send with your check, made payable to OCPJ, to:

Oxford Citizens for Peace and Justice
16. S Campus Avenue, Oxford, OH 45056